To Advertisers.—The VERMONT DAILY TRANSCRIPT has the largest circulation in St. Albans and in Franklin County, of any daily paper, and is on that account, if no other, the best medium for advertising.

Local Items.

Interesting matter, original or selected, may always be found on the first page.

OUR DAILY.—Those wishing to secure copies of our daily paper can do so at Merrillfield's and Baker's bookstores, a well as of carriers, and at the office. Copies of our weekly paper may also be had at these places.

THE DISCHARGE OF ENGINEERS.—Mr. James Harper, one of the four Engineers discharged by Master Mechanic Foss, was not discharged on account of bad habits or conduct. Mr. Foss gives Mr. Harper a certificate, endorsed by Superintendent Merrill stating that Mr. Harper has been employed by the road for the last four years as fireman and engineer, in which capacity he has given good satisfaction; is a steady, industrious man and fully capable of successfully running a locomotive.

MICHAEL CONLIN, one of the parties implicated in stoning Hurley to death, was arrested last evening and lodged in jail. Doyle and Conlin are having their examination before Justice Sherman this afternoon.

THE annual parade, inspection and drill of the Burlington Fire Department will take place on the 30th of September, at 2 o'clock, P. M.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY.—C. K. Williams, Henry Clark, and Barnes Frisbee have called a meeting at Rutland on the 29th inst., to organize a County Historical Society.

Co. D. 5th VERMONT.—The members of Company D. 5th Vermont will have a ball at re-union at Morrisville on the 1st. Every member of the company is invited to be present. Addresses may be expected. After supper music will be furnished for those wishing to dance.

The Banner says the West Rupert cheese factory is now manufacturing the milk of about four hundred cows. The Company now have on hand about five hundred and fifty cheese, weighing about 35,000 pounds.

FULTON MARKET.—Just received, a nice lot of Dried Beef, Sugar Cured Hams, Bologna Sausage, Sweet Potatoes, Tomatoes, Peas, Peaches, Water Melons and Musk Melons.

PRESENTATION.—We learn from the Times that Mrs. O. L. Ballard, for some years alto singer in the choir of the White Street Congregational Church, Burlington, has been presented by the members of the Society with a handsome silver pitcher, goblet, and two gold-lined sugar spoons, in token of their appreciation of her services.

RE-ARRESTED.—Mrs. Charles Potter, who was released on bail last week, was again arrested on Tuesday night last, on a Bench Warrant from the Judges of the Chittenden County Court, an indictment having been found against her by the Grand Jury on a new charge of receiving stolen goods, taken from Smith Wright's store in Williston.

MORRIS BROS. MINSTRELS.—This celebrated troupe give an entertainment this evening at the Academy Hall, as will be seen on reference to our advertisements; and we shall be greatly surprised if they do not have a crowded house. This troupe gave entertainments in Burlington, on Wednesday and Thursday evenings, and the Times thus speaks of their performances:

The entertainment of this troupe last evening was a success as regards audience and the excellent and satisfactory manner in which the programme was carried out. The vocal and instrumental portion was far above the average—the dancing appropriate and skillful,—while the eccentricities and burlesques afforded a fund of amusement to all, and were received with shouts of laughter. "Billy Morris" was in his best vein and gave his imitations of the "Mocking Bird" in the same wonderful manner as of old. The company appear positively for the last time this evening, and announce a full change of programme, embracing new burlesques, songs, and dances. Our citizens may rely that this company give, in every respect, a respectable entertainment, full of music and mirth and free from vulgarity.

HUNTINGTON.—The contested election case in Huntington has fallen through. The Republican vote of this town was divided between two candidates for Town Representative, P. Remington and A. E. Bates. After a protracted contest, Mr. Remington was elected by one majority. Mr. Bates' friends announced their intention to contest the election, on the ground that a Remington man had voted twice, as the check list showed one name twice on the same ballot. A day was appointed for a hearing and taking of depositions in reference to the case; but by some blunder the hour for it was set in the notice at 10 o'clock P. M., at which hour it was found impracticable to take the testimony, and the whole thing was allowed to drop.

Re-Union of Vermont Officers.

The Fifth Annual Re-Union of Vermont officers will be held at Montpelier on Thursday, the 22d of October next. The members of the Re-Union Society, and all Vermont officers of the army and navy are respectfully invited to attend. The usual preliminary meeting for the election of officers and other business, will be held at the Court House, at 10 o'clock, a. m. The oration will be delivered by Gen. P. T. Washburn, at the Hall of the House of Representatives, during the evening.

Re-Union of Vermont Officers.

In issuing this call, it has been thought proper to state briefly the history of the organization, its aims and its objects. In the Autumn of 1861, a few officers and ex-officers issued a call for a meeting to be held at Montpelier, for the purpose of tendering a complimentary dinner to Gen. George J. Stannard, then barely recovered from the effect of his wounds received at the storming of Fort Harrison. About 75 officers assembled in response to that call, and formed a permanent organization. Since that time, meetings of the Society have annually been held, and the membership has increased to about 300, a large majority of whom have been present at the meetings.

The object of this association is simply to afford an opportunity to renew, through social intercourse, the ties of friendship formed in the field; to draw a renewed inspiration and renewed courage for the work yet before us from the "touch of a comrade's elbow," and the sight of the shot-rent standards under which we fought, and so many of our heroes fell; and to keep green and sacred in our hearts the memories of the five thousand who gave their lives for the cause.

GEN. WM. Y. W. RIPLEY, President.

Maj. Chas. F. Spaulding,
Maj. Josiah Ghout, jr.

When the PLANTATION BITTERS were first made known to the American people some seven years ago, it was supposed they were an entirely new thing, and had never before been used. So far as their general use in the United States is concerned, this may be true. It is also true that the same Bitters were made and sold in the Island of St. Thomas, over forty years ago, as any old planter, merchant or sea captain doing business with the West Indies will tell you. It is distinctly within my recollection that on the return of my father (who was a sea captain and doing an extensive trade in the tropics,) he would invariably have the Bitters among the ship's stores, and our family sideboard was never without them. For any sickness, it matter, not how severe or trifling, the decenter of these Bitters, by a different name, was always resorted to as a sover remedy.
